PUBLIC COMMENT SOUGHT ON DRAFT PLAN FOR ANASAZI STATE PARK MUSEUM

Utah State Parks and Recreation is seeking public comment on a draft resource management plan (RMP) for Anasazi State Park Museum located in Boulder, Utah. The draft RMP identifies issues relating to public use, resource management and future development at the park and will make recommendations to guide park managers for the next 10 years.

A planning team consisting of park users, local citizens, other agency representatives and park managers developed the draft plan through a series of team and public meetings.

The plan is located for review online at: http://static.stateparks.utah.gov/docs/Anasazi_RMP_Draft_f.pdf, or in hardcopy at the Utah State Park office at 1594 West North Temple, Suite 116, Salt Lake City, Utah; the Anasazi State Park Museum in Boulder, Utah; and the Utah State Parks, SE Region Office, 1165 South Highway 191, Suite 7, Moab, Utah.

Comments will be accepted until November 30, 2008 by:

UTAH STATE PARKS BOATING ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETS IN SALT LAKE

Salt Lake City - The Utah State Parks Boating Advisory Council meets Wednesday, November 5 at 4 p.m. in the Department of Natural Resources building located at 1594 West North Temple, Suite 112. Topics for discussion include an update on the Utah State Parks boating program and vessel inspection manual.

The seven members of the Utah Boating Advisory Council represent various boating interests, including the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, sailing and non-powered craft, wildlife and outdoor recreation associations, marine dealers, personal watercraft, river runners and a youth member.

The council gives its input and recommendations on state boating policies, laws and rules to Division Boating Program staff and the Board of Utah State Parks and Recreation.
